

THE FACILITY

Casey Piazza

Casey Piazza is a lifelong baseball enthusiast with deep roots in the sport. A product of the Pine Bush baseball program, Casey went on to have a four-year college career as a pitcher at SUNY Brockport and Castleton University, where he led the Golden Eagles in ERA his junior season.

Today, Casey is an elementary PE teacher in Kingston, where he inspires young athletes daily. He's also a dedicated coach for the Kingston soccer and baseball programs. His track record speaks volumes: Casey has guided numerous athletes to success, including those who've advanced to professional and collegiate levels.
