

THE FACILITY

Elan Trischitta

Elan Trischitta, 28, is a Saugerties native that played baseball for Saugerties from Little League through high school. He played on teams that won back to back Babe Ruth State Championships in 2008 and 2009, and in his senior year of high school in 2011, his team made it to the state final four in Binghamton, NY. He went on to play college baseball for four years at SUNY Purchase College, a division III college in the Skyline Conference where he went on to be named a 1st Team All-Conference player and Captain in his Senior year (2015) in which he batted .361