

THE FACILITY

Nick Deising

Nick Deising is a new addition to the Facility coming from a 4 year Collegiate career at SUNY Brockport. He has had the opportunity to win and play in Conference championships, NCAA tournaments, minor league ballparks, and play with former teammates that are now in minor league farm systems. Nick has had a unique career path as a pitcher. He has been a closer, starter and reliever throughout his career from high school-summer ball-college ball. He has pitched from multiple arms slots and has a big arsenal of pitches accumulated over the years.

Nick has recently transitioned to coaching for the Kingston Saugerties Legion. He plans on landing a Physical education or Health education job in a school locally.
